Re: United States v. Jacob Rosner, Ind. No. 19-CR-497 -04 (NSR)

Dear Judge Román:

On behalf of Jacob Rosner, I write to respectfully request that the Court reschedule his Faretta hearing to a date after the Faretta hearings of the other Defendants.

The Court previously granted Mr. Rosner's request that his Faretta hearing be conducted after the hearings for the co-defendants. See ECF No. 93 ("In view of Mr. Rosner's youth . . . and his relationships with the other defendants . . . should the Court schedule a Faretta hearing for Mr. Jacob Rosner, we request that it be scheduled on a date after the conduct of the other Faretta hearings, on a date when no other Defendant in this case is produced to Court."). See ECF Nos. 87, 105 (granting that request by scheduling Jacob Rosner's Faretta hearing for August 6—after the earlier dates then scheduled for the other hearings).

Recently, the Court rescheduled the Faretta hearing of Defendant Helbrans from July 30 to September 15 because the former date fell on a religious holiday. Jacob Rosner is 21 years old and Nachman Helbrans is Mr. Rosner's rabbi. Hence, and consistent with the same reasons expressed previously, I request that Mr. Rosner's hearing be rescheduled for a date after September 15.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Alan S. Lewis
